

Hush, Little Child

James Harbeck, 2002

Hush, Little Child (James Harbeck, 2002)

Hush, lit-tle child in the hay. Hush, tense world in the night. An-gels in fields at play, Dark sanc-ti-fied by light - Hush, Christ is born to-day! An - gels, arch - an - gels Born in your back - yard

Look for the pea - rls dan - cing the side - walks, Rol - ling in snow - flakes with you will dis - co - ver Christ come to weep for ly - ing in pud - dles; Hark to the trum - pets child - ren in play - grounds... Why look a - bove you? God is a - mong you! all the world's suff' ring. Though we've for - sa - ken our sac - red birth - right, sound - ing in traf - fic; Step from the tread - mill, stand out in si - lence -

Star of the Ma - gi shines from a street-lamp; Dawn ev' ry morn - ing is now God re - turns it wrapped in our tis - sue - Our Christ-mas pres - ent heart of the whirl - wind is still - ness un - turn - ing. No one's a strang - er; first Christ - mas day - - - break.

shows us our fu - - - ture.
all breathe to - ge - - - ther.